Here comes the Holidays

This year is almost over and has gone by really fast. I hate to see another year go by but that is part of life. We have a short month with only two breakfast meetings, the Birthday Party and our Senior Christmas party. We will still have games and coffee & tea until the 15th. Check out the calendar and make sure you are here as much as possible.

Breakfast News

This month we will only have two opportunities to enjoy a breakfast together. That will be December 4th and 11th. The Civic Center stays very busy during the holidays and since we get to use it all the time, I guess we need to share. Plan to come enjoy the fellowship while we can. Be sure to tell our cooks how much you appreciate them preparing our breakfast. Mary & Roger Barnhill, Pat Dunbar, Pat Hawthorn, Shirley Parker, Rita & Butch Turner, and Juanita Young are the ones that get a big THANK YOU.

Birthday Party

Our birthday celebration will be held on December 5th at 1:30. We don't want the December birthdays to miss their party. Come enjoy Ice Cream and Cake and see what else is on the table. It's always fun and we get to have one last birthday party in 2018.

Senior Christmas Party

Every year we have a Senior Christmas Party so get ready to party on December 12th at 1:30. You get to bring your favorite finger food and we get to sample it. We have door prizes and gifts so you don't want to miss this event. It is the last party of the year. We'll have the building decked out for Christmas and fancied up for you. I hope to see everyone here.

Cookie Swap, Anyone?

For the last few years, we have had a cookie swap before Christmas. This is where we prepare one kind of cookie and end up with several kinds. Bring your cookies to the ceter on December 6th at 10:00. Make copies of your recipes and share, package 6-8 per bag per attendee and bring a few to sample during the swap. I loop forward to this since I end up with several and only have to cook one batch.

Christmas is for Family

Once all the Christmas shopping is over and the cooking or traveling is completed it is time to enjoy the family get together. The fun part is seeing the excitement and joy in the faces of your loved ones. I don't have a lot of company during Christmas but I do a lot of traveling. I consider you my family too so I hope you enjoy your holiday. It will be lonesome without you for the three weeks we will not have activities. Keep me in mind and if you get lonesome too, come see me.

Merry Christmas to you and yours!!!

City Rhythm Big Band Christmas Dance

The City Rhythm Big Band will begin their dance season on December 1st from 7:00PM until 10:00 PM. Many of you got a taste of their music last month at the Veterans Day Celebration, so why not come hear them again? When you come, prepare to be dazzled with their performance. They play songs from 40's, 50's, and 60's (the ones we remember and loved). Come see for yourself what a good time can be had.

Coffee & Tea with Me

It wouldn't be Friday without Coffee & Tea. We have coffee, teas and some kind of snacks. Here lately, we talk about anything and everything and enjoy every minute of it. While we may not always agree, we just enjoy the conversation. Come see how much fun our Fridays can be. We will only have two sessions during the month of December and will re-start in January.

Game Day

We continue to enjoy our games on Thursdays from 1-3 PM. The group is growing and all are very competitive. We enjoy being together and especially the fun and laughter. Come join us to see how much fun we have. We can always put another chair at the table just for you.

Monroe Crossing is Coming

Monroe Crossing will be here in concert on January 24, 2018. We seniors volunteer to help with their ticket sales and sell concessions the night of the show. The funds earned from the concessions are deposited into our Senior Project Account to be used for our benefit. If you can help, I need you!!! Think about it and let me know if you want to help.

A Message from me

This year has had it's ups and downs for me and my family, as you all know. I appreciate all your concerns and your prayers. Things are beginning to settle into a new normal for my household. Al has a ways to go to recover from his broken arm, Dad is doing as well as possible and to me that is a good thing, and I am doing well with me health. All of you have enriched my life with your support and encouragement. I hope I have helped you and made your life a little better with the activities and events we have at the Center. Each year I strive to offer a variety of things for us to do to keep us entertained and active. If there is something you are looking for, let me know so I can see if we can add it to the routine we have established. I look forward to the coming year and being with you to see how much trouble we can get into. Keep coming and enjoying the things we all love.

Love you all,

Beryl
