

Is it June?

I seem to have lost all sense of time. What day is it, what month is it, and where am I. Who knows? Normally I would be dealing with the noise of 50 kids invading the building but that is gone too. As we take a “wait and see” attitude it is hard adjusting. I hope you are staying safe and well. As we work our way in this unknown, our biggest concern is to keep each other healthy. In Governor Ivy’s Amended Safer at Home announcement Senior Citizen Centers are not to open now. There will be another update on July 3rd so we need to wait some more. I am so ready to see everyone but safety and your health is more important. Hang in there, call if you need to talk, and above all be safe. This COVID-19 threat is frightening to us all.

At the Center

There are not any activities going on at the Civic Center. Tina and I are coming in for half days to answer the phones and keep the place clean. We have no in-mate so it is just us. There will be Municipal Court held on June 4th and 19th since there has been no court for three months but Tina & I will not be here for that. There is a small wedding scheduled for June that was postponed from March but that is it. Boy, things have changed. The Civic Center normally is hopping in June.

Easing Back

As businesses re-open, they are required to meet the additional sanitation guidelines and use social distancing. Be aware as you start going out to eat, get a haircut or shopping. New rules may be in place for them so use your common sense and patients. The State of Alabama is proceeding with caution which is a good thing. Let’s see how the COVID-19 cases change during the month of June to see how the gradual socializing goes.

Father’s Day is Coming

June 21st is a special day. We get to celebrate the Dad’s in our lives. Many of our Husbands and Son’s have grown to be wonderful Fathers. We are lucky to have these men and we enjoy honoring them. I am proud to have my Dad (Pop), my Husband (Al) and my Son (Mike) as part of my world. They are all great examples of what a Father should be. I hope all of you guys enjoy your day .

Other Special Day’s this Month

June 14—Flag Day

June 20—First Day of Summer

June Birthday

6/9	Tina Harris
6/16	Ann Black
6/20	June Buzbee
6/24	Ruth Fore
6/27	Danny Breedon
6/27	June Styron

